

When I was born, my mom already wore a HIJAB most of the time. And at the time, my older sisters had recently chosen to wear theirs: the oldest being 20 and the other 17. I watched them with immense ADMIRATION. I was very curious to see how I would feel in a hijab!

